

ABHILASH LUYO SANCHEZ

Abhilash Luyo Sanchez is a senior business leader with over 18 years of experience in strategy, sales, marketing, business development, financial performance, people development and leadership across Africa and international markets. She currently serves as a Global Project Pursuit Director, leading strategic engagement on complex, high-value projects across multiple regions. Her career spans diverse industries including energy, mining, oil & gas, power, infrastructure, manufacturing and industrial technology.

As an Electronic Engineer by training, Abhilash holds a BSc (Hons) in Electronic Engineering from the University of KwaZulu-Natal, an Executive MBA from Henley Business School and has completed the GIBS Board Leadership Programme.

Abhilash is married and a mother of two sons, with a personal connection to Cedarwood through her eldest son, who is a learner at the school. She strongly believes in “no child left behind” and that education should recognise the individuality of every child, nurture their strengths and give them the confidence and opportunity to reach their full potential. Her hobbies include reading and gardening.
